

What The Critics Say...

“They are possibly the greatest girls group of this or any era” – The Atlanta Journal

“They are excellent performers that are reminiscent of the great girl groups of a bygone era”

– The San Francisco Chronicle

“...a sound that is smooth and lush” – The Des Moines Register

“...the highlight of the show” – The Long Beach Press Telegram

“The Chordettes was the best show we have ever had”

– Shrine Recorders Association of Northern America

“Without a doubt, all of you contributed to the finest party Pacific Palisades and Santa Monica has ever seen. Your presence, expertise, talent and beauty will long be remembered. Thank you for making our dreams come true and may Mr. Sandman, “Bring Us A Dream” last forever with all of you, as it will with us.”

– Kay Boldman Cummings, Pacific Palisades, CA (private party function performance)

“In the ten years that we have been presenting “Nostalgia” entertainment to our audiences in Northern California, this show had as a tremendous an audience reaction as anything we have ever done. Not only were we deluged with pleased subscribers at the theaters, but we have been receiving mail ever since, complimenting us on the show and telling us what a great time everyone enjoyed. I want to thank you so very much for bringing such happiness to our thousands of customers.”
